(f) a purchaser, if he elects to accelerate the discharge of his obligations in terms of the contract, may not claim that transfer of the land shall be effected against payment of all amounts owing in terms of the contract, or any other agreement of like import, shall be of no force or effect.

(2) Subject to the provisions of subsection (3), the purchaser shall, if the seller at any time arranges on behalf of the purchaser a loan secured by a mortgage bond over the land-

(a) within 14 days after he has been requested by written notice sent to his address contemplated in section 23, complete an application and provide all necessary information required by the intended mortgagee for purposes of the loan and furnish the seller with the completed application and the information; and

(b) in the event of the loan being granted, forthwith sign all documents required for the purposes of the registration of the mortgage bond.

(3) A loan referred to in subsection (2)-

(a) shall be arranged for payment of all amounts owed by the purchaser to the seller in terms of the contract as well as the costs of transfer and the costs of registration of the mortgage bond; and

(b) shall, as to the rate of interest and redemption, not be more onerous than the terms which at the time of transfer apply in respect of a loan secured by a first mortgage bond over land granted by a building society for the amount in question and on security of the same kind or class of property.

(4) If the purchaser fails to comply with any of the provisions of subsection (2), the seller is entitled to cancel the contract, in which case the parties are entitled to the relief provided for in section 28 (1): Provided that nothing contained in this subsection shall detract from any additional claim for damages which the seller may have.

16 Statements of account

(1) While a contract is in force, the seller shall free of charge hand to the purchaser a statement of account or send such statement by registered post to him at his address referred to in section 23, not later than 12 months from the date of the contract and thereafter within 30 days of the end of each successive period of 12 months following on the date of the first statement of account.

(2) In the first said statement there shall be indicated the purchase price and other costs separately which were owing in terms of the contract at the date of the contract or, in any other statement, the outstanding balance which was owing in terms of the contract at the date of the previous statement and, in all statements-

(a) the interest and other costs which accrued in terms of the contract during the period covered by the statement;

(b) the allocation, in respect of capital interest and other costs separately, of amounts paid during that period in terms of the contract;

(c) the balance of the purchase price and other costs owing in terms of the contract at the end of that period;

(d) the amount, if any, payable in respect of any endowment, betterment or enhancement levy, a development contribution or any similar imposition in terms of any law in relation to the land at the end of that period;

[Para. (d) substituted by s. 7 of Act 51 of 1983.]

(e) if the land is encumbered with a mortgage bond or mortgage bonds-

(i) but not together with other land, the amount owing under that mortgage bond or those mortgage bonds at the end of that period; or

(ii) together with other land, the proportionate amount, calculated in accordance with the provisions of section 9 (3) (b), owing under that mortgage bond or those mortgage bonds in respect of the land at the end of that period;

(f) the amount, if any, owing at the end of that period in terms of any alienation of the land in question before the time the contract was concluded.

(3) If in respect of any statement of account the seller fails to comply with the provisions of subsection (1) or (2) and if he remains in default for more than 30 days to furnish the purchaser with that statement of account after the purchaser has by letter, sent to him by registered post at his address referred to in section 23, requested him therefor, the purchaser is not liable for the payment of interest in terms of the contract from the date of the posting of that letter to the date upon which the purchaser receives the statement from the seller.

17 Right of purchaser to accelerate payments and claim transfer of land

The purchaser is at all times entitled-

(a) to make a payment before the due date on which it has to be made in terms of the contract; or

(b) to make larger payments than the payments for which the control provides; or

(c) if the land is registrable at that time, to tender payment of all amounts owing in terms of the contract to the seller and claim that transfer of the land shall be effected to the purchaser against such payment.

18 Transfer of land to remote purchaser

(1) Subject to the provisions of subsection (2), any remote purchaser is entitled to claim transfer of land to himself, provided-

(a) he has fulfilled or tenders fulfilment of his obligations in terms of the contract under which he purchased the land;

(b) the obligations of every intermediary between the owner and the remote purchaser have been fulfilled or fulfilment thereof is tendered; and

(c) the land is at that time registrable.

(2) If any intermediary contemplated in subsection (1) (b) is an insolvent at the time land is to be transferred under and by virtue of that subsection, the land shall, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any rule of law but subject to the provisions of the Deeds Registries Act, be transferred by the trustee or liquidator or executor concerned to the person to whom that intermediary alienated the land.

(3) A remote purchaser who, in order to obtain transfer of land, pays the transfer duty and transfer costs which are payable by an intermediary, may recover the amounts so paid from that intermediary.

(4) If any seller assigns to any other person, hereinafter referred to as the assignee, his obligation to give transfer of the land in terms of a contract, such assignment is deemed to be a power of attorney to the assignee to transfer the land in accordance with the conditions of the contract to the purchaser, and the assignee may appoint a conveyancer to execute the deed of transfer.

19 Limitation of right of seller to take action

(1) No seller is, by reason of any breach of contract on the part of the purchaser, entitled-

(a) to enforce any provision of the contract for the acceleration of the payment of any instalment of the purchase price or any other penalty stipulation in the contract;

(b) to terminate the contract; or

(c) to institute an action for damages, unless he has by letter notified the purchaser of the breach of contract concerned and made demand to the purchaser to rectify the breach of contract in question, and the purchaser has failed to comply with such demand.

[Sub-s. (1) amended by s. 8 (a) of Act 51 of 1983.]

(2) A notice referred to in subsection (1) shall be handed to the purchaser or shall be sent to him by registered post to his address referred to in section 23 and shall contain-

(a) a description of the purchaser's alleged breach of contract;

[Para. (a) substituted by s. 8 (b) of Act 51 of 1983.]

(b) a demand that the purchaser rectify the alleged breach within a stated period, which, subject to the provisions of subsection (3), shall not be less than 30 days calculated from the date on which the notice was handed to the purchaser or sent to him by registered post, as the case may be; and

[Para. (b) substituted by s. 8 (b) of Act 51 of 1983.]

(c) an indication of the steps the seller intends to take if the alleged breach of contract is not rectified.

[Para. (c) substituted by s. 8 (b) of Act 51 of 1983.]

(3) If the seller in the same calendar year has so handed or sent to the purchaser two such notices at intervals of more than 30 days, he may in any subsequent notice so handed or sent to the purchaser in such calendar year, make demand to the purchaser to carry out his obligation within a period of not less than seven days calculated from the date on which the notice was so handed or sent to the purchaser, as the case may be.

(4) Subsection (1) shall not be construed in such a manner as to prevent the seller from taking steps to protect the land and improvements thereon or, without or after notice as required by the said subsection, from claiming specific performance.

20 Recording of contract

(1) (a) A seller, whether he is the owner of the land concerned or not, shall cause the contract to be recorded by the registrar concerned in the prescribed manner provided a prior contract in force in respect of the land has not been recorded or is not required to be recorded in terms of this section.

(b) If a period of 90 days from the date-

(i) of the contract, if the land is registrable; or

(ii) upon which the land becomes registrable; or

(iii) upon which the land is registered in the name of a purchaser in terms of a preceding contract which was or was required to be recorded in terms of this section, has expired without the seller having caused the contract to be recorded in terms of paragraph (a), the purchaser may-

(aa) within 14 days after such expiry cancel the contract, in which case the parties shall be entitled to the relief provided for in section 28 (1): Provided that nothing in this subparagraph contained shall detract from any additional claim for any damages which the purchaser may have; or

(bb) at any time thereafter, if he does not cancel the contract under subparagraph (aa), apply to the registrar concerned to record the contract in the prescribed manner: Provided that should a purchaser exercise his right to cause a contract to be recorded in terms of the foregoing provisions of this subparagraph, he shall not be liable for any wasted costs arising from the seller also having taken steps or taking steps to have such contract recorded.

(c) If a contract recorded in terms of this section is terminated for whatever reason, such recording shall be cancelled in the prescribed manner.

[Sub-s. (1) substituted by s. 9 of Act 51 of 1983.]

(2) The registrar concerned-

(a) may register a mortgage bond over land in respect of which a contract has been recorded;

(b) shall not register a transfer of land in respect of which a contract has been recorded, unless-

(i) the transferee is the purchaser under the contract; or

(ii) the transferee is an intermediary in relation to the purchaser; or

(iii) such recording has been cancelled.

[Sub-s. (2) substituted by s. 9 of Act 51 of 1983.]

(2A) The provisions of section 43 (5) (a) of the Deeds Registries Act shall not be applicable in respect of the recording of a contract in terms of this section.

[Sub-s. (2A) inserted by s. 9 of Act 51 of 1983.]

(3) The owner of land and any person in possession of the owner's copy of the title deed concerned shall render all necessary assistance to enable a seller or purchaser of that land to cause a contract to be recorded in terms of subsection (1), or to effect a cancellation of such recording in terms of subsection (1) (c), and if he fails to do so he shall be liable to such seller or purchaser as if he were obliged by contract to do so and failed to do so.

[Sub-s. (3) substituted by s. 9 of Act 51 of 1983.]

(4) A recording of a contract in terms of this section is subject to any pre-emptive right registered in a deeds registry in respect of the land concerned on or before the date of the recording.

(5) When a contract has been recorded-

(a) the purchaser has, if the land concerned is sold in execution or because the owner of that land is an insolvent, a preferent claim in respect of the proceeds of the sale, which claim, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any other law-

(i) ranks in preference immediately after any claim of a mortgagee whose mortgage bond over the land was registered prior to or on the date of the recording of the contract; and

(ii) equals the amount the purchaser may recover from the seller under section 28 (1) in the event of a termination of that contract or, if he is a remote purchaser, any amount he may have paid on behalf of the owner under section 11 (1); and

(b) the said claim of a mortgagee shall, in competition with any claim of a purchaser, not exceed the amounts referred to in section 9 (3).

(6) In this section 'registrar' means a registrar of deeds within the meaning of the Deeds Registries Act, and includes the registrar of Rand townships referred to in section 2 of that Act.

21 Purchaser to be notified to take transfer of land when such land is attached or the owner becomes an insolvent

- (1) Any remote purchaser shall forthwith notify the owner of the land of-
- (a) the conclusion of the contract in question;
 - (b) his address referred to in section 23 and any change of that address; and
 - (c) the name and address of any intermediary who alienated the land prior to the date the said contract was concluded.
- (2) When the owner of land sold under a contract becomes an insolvent, or a judgment creditor of that owner attaches such land by virtue of a writ in execution-
- (a)
 - (i) the owner shall, within 14 days of the appointment of a trustee or liquidator or the attachment, inform the trustee or liquidator or judgment creditor, as the case may be, of the name and address of any person of whose name and address he was notified in terms of the provisions of subsection (1); and
 - (ii) a mortgagee shall, within ten days after he receives notice of the insolvency or attachment, inform the trustee, executor, liquidator or judgment creditor, as the case may be, of the name and address of any purchaser who gave notice to him that he had purchased the land in terms of a contract;
 - (b) the trustee, executor, liquidator or judgment creditor of that owner shall, if that land is registrable, as soon as may be practicable notify every person who he has reason to believe purchased the land in terms of a contract or is an intermediary in relation to the contract, of his right, subject to the provisions of section 22 (3), to take transfer of the land concerned.
- (3) The notification contemplated in subsection (2) (b) shall be effected by notice in writing handed to the person concerned or sent to him by registered post.
- (4) Any trustee, executor, liquidator or judgment creditor contemplated in subsection (2) (b)-
- (a) who fails without fault on his part to hand or send a notice referred to in subsection (3) to a purchaser or an intermediary in accordance with that subsection, shall not merely by reason of such failure incur any liability towards the purchaser or intermediary concerned; and
 - (b) shall, unless the contrary is proved, be deemed so to have failed through his fault if-
 - (i) due notice in accordance with the provisions of subsection (2) (a) was given to him in respect of the purchaser concerned; or
 - (ii) he did not take all reasonable steps appropriate to the circumstances of the case to obtain the name and address of the purchaser or intermediary concerned, unless he is a mortgagee to whom notice was required to be given in terms of section 9 (1), and no such notice was given to him by the purchaser concerned.
- (5) Any owner or mortgagee who wilfully or negligently fails to comply with the provisions of subsection (2) (a), shall be guilty of an offence and upon conviction liable to a fine not exceeding R1 000 or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding one year or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

22 Transfer of land to purchaser when such land is attached or the owner becomes an insolvent

- (1) When the owner of land alienated under a contract becomes an insolvent, or a judgment creditor of the owner attaches such land by virtue of a writ of execution, that land shall, subject to the provisions of the Deeds Registries Act, be transferred to any person who purchased that land in terms of a contract or who is an intermediary in relation to that contract and who, in accordance with the provisions of subsection (2), makes arrangements for the payment of all costs in connection with the transfer and of an amount equal to-
- (a) all amounts owing under the deed of alienation in terms of which that owner alienated the land; or

(b) the sum of-

- (i) the costs of attachment or, in the case of an insolvent, such sequestration and administration costs contemplated in section 89 (1) of the Insolvency Act, 1936 (Act 24 of 1936), as relate to the land;
- (ii) any amount payable in respect of any endowment, betterment or enhancement levy, a development contribution or any similar imposition in terms of any law in relation to the land; and

[Sub-para. (ii) substituted by s. 10 (b) of Act 51 of 1983.]

(iii) if the land is encumbered by a mortgage bond and, in the case of an insolvent, subject to the provisions of the Insolvency Act, 1936, the amounts required by the mortgagee in accordance with the provisions of section 9 (3) of this Act, including interest to date of transfer, whichever of the two amounts contemplated in paragraph (a) or (b) may be the larger, and also makes arrangements for the signing of all documents required in connection with transfer.

[Sub-s. (1) amended by s. 10 (a) of Act 51 of 1983.]

(2) (a) The arrangements contemplated in subsection (1), shall be made by the person concerned-

- (i) if the land was attached, before the land is sold in execution, to the satisfaction of the deputy sheriff or messenger of the court concerned, as the case may be; and
- (ii) if the owner of the land is an insolvent and, subject to the provisions of paragraph (b), within such period as his trustee, executor or liquidator, as the case may be, may allow, which period shall not be less than 30 days, to the satisfaction of such trustee, executor or liquidator, as the case may be.

(b) If a trustee, executor or liquidator refuses or fails to accept any offer by the person concerned in respect of arrangements contemplated in subsection (1), that person may appeal to the Master of the Supreme Court under whose supervision the owner is being liquidated or his or her estate is being sequestrated.

[Para. (b) substituted by s. 90 of Act 88 of 1996.]

(3) If more than one person is prepared and able to take transfer in accordance with the provisions of subsection (1), the land shall be transferred to the person to whom the land was first alienated.

(4) A transfer in terms of subsection (1) shall be effected by the deputy sheriff, messenger of the court, trustee, executor or liquidator, as the case may be, as if it were a transfer mutatis mutandis by virtue of a sale in execution or the realization of an immovable asset of an insolvent.

(5) When land is transferred in accordance with the provisions of subsection (1) to a remote purchaser or an intermediary to whom the land was alienated by a person other than the owner, the provisions of section 18 (1) shall apply mutatis mutandis in respect of the transfer of the land to the remote purchaser or the intermediary.

(6) If any person has, by virtue of arrangements made by him in terms of subsection (1), paid a larger amount than the amounts referred to in subsection (1) (a), he has, subject to any claim he may have in terms of section 11 (2) or 18 (3), a concurrent claim against the owner for the difference.

(7) If no satisfactory arrangements are made in terms of subsection (1), the land and its proceeds shall be dealt with in accordance with the rules of law relating to sales in execution or insolvency, as the case may be.

23 Addresses of purchaser and seller

The addresses stated in any contract in terms of section 6 (1) (a) shall serve as domicilium citandi et executandi of the parties for all purposes of the contract, and notice of a change of such an address shall be given in writing and shall be delivered or sent by registered post by one party to the other, in which case such changed address shall serve as such domicilium citandi et executandi of the party who has given such notice.

24 Relief that court may grant in respect of contracts

(1) Notwithstanding the provisions of any law to the contrary but subject to any other powers that any court may have, if a contract does not substantially comply with any one of the provisions of section 5 or 6, a court within whose area of jurisdiction the land referred to in the contract is situated, is, if appropriate proceedings are instituted by the purchaser within a period of two years from the date upon which the contract was concluded, competent-

(a) to reduce the rate of interest payable by the purchaser in terms of the contract to such rate as it may deem just and equitable in the circumstances;

(b) to grant an order for rectification of the contract;

(c) to declare the contract to be void ab initio; or

(d) to grant such alternative relief as it may deem fit.

(2) A court within whose area of jurisdiction land sold under a contract is situated, may, on the application of the purchaser who, by reason of the fact that any person failed to sign a document relating to the transfer of or the payment of transfer duty in respect of such land, is unable to obtain transfer of such land, order the deputy sheriff or messenger of the court concerned, as the case may be, to sign on behalf of any such person any such document, subject to such conditions as the court may determine.

(3) A magistrate's court shall, notwithstanding the value of the land or claim concerned, have jurisdiction to grant any relief contemplated in subsection (1) or (2).

(a) the alienee, by virtue of a deed of alienation, entrusts to a practitioner or an estate agent in his capacity as such, to keep, for the benefit of the alienator in terms of that deed of alienation, in the trust account of the practitioner or estate agent; or

[Para. (a) substituted by s. 12 (b) of Act 51 of 1983.]

(1) Any purchaser who in terms of a deed of alienation has undertaken to pay the purchase price of land in specified instalments over a period in the future and who has paid to the seller in such instalments not less than 50 per cent of the purchase price, shall, if the land is registrable, be entitled to demand from the seller transfer of the land on condition that simultaneously with the registration of the transfer there shall be registered in favour of the seller a first mortgage bond over the land to secure the balance of the purchase price and interest in terms of the deed of alienation.

(2) The conditions as to the rate of interest and redemption as well as other conditions of the mortgage bond contemplated in subsection (1), shall not be more onerous than the conditions which applied in respect of the deed of alienation.

(a) on signature of the later transaction be deemed to have exercised his or her right in terms of subsection (1) to revoke or terminate the earlier transaction; and

(b) forthwith after signature of the later transaction in writing notify the seller of the earlier transaction of the revocation or termination, as the case may be, of that transaction.
